Central overcomes halftime deficit to defeat Lamar

By Don Gearhart

When you have three separate players exceeding 100 yards rushing and have nearly 100 total yards over your opponent, you expect to win. However, four turnovers, some costly penalties, and a plethora of poor tackling cost Lamar the game against the Central Eagles by the score of 40-30.

Central tried to execute an on-side kick to start the game. It backfired as the Silver Foxes covered the kick and set up on the Eagles 43. It only took four plays to find the end zone with TJ Samuel covering the final 20 yards. The 2-point conversion attempt failed but Lamar had a 6-0 lead very early in the contest. Lamar then stopped an Eagles drive on fourth down and took over. But, on the first play from scrimmage the ball came loose and Central recovered. A 16-yard sack on third down forced the Eagles to punt. The kick went into the end zone for a touchback giving Lamar the ball at their own 20. A holding penalty moved them back to the 13 and on the next play, Central intercepted a pass and returned the ball to the Lamar 20. With a first-and-goal from the 9, a holding penalty moved the Eagles back to the 18. A tackle in the backfield cost them two yards. They overcame that when a scramble enabled a receiver to get wide open in the end zone for a 20-yard scoring strike. The successful PAT kick gave Central a 7-6 lead. Lamar started their next drive from their own 18. Jalen Morris raced for a 48-yard gain and Samuel accounted for 9 more yards on two carries. Jaquen Dargan would finish the scoring drive on runs of 16, 6, and 3. Jackson Scott would sprint around the left end for the 2-pt conversion to give Lamar a 14-7 lead. Pass completions for 22 and 11 yards and a run for 44 more put Central at the Lamar 33 as the quarter ended.

When the second quarter started, the Eagles got a 20-yard run to the 9 and culminated the drive with a 9-syard scamper and a PAT to knot the score at 14-14. Lamar would be forced to punt and Central pulled a bag-of-tricks on their first play after the punt. A backwards pass in the left flats turned into a 29-yard pass completion downfield to the Lamar 36. A number of missed tackles on a 21-yard run put Central at the Lamar 5. A sack for 6 yards stalled the Eagles drive and an incomplete pass on fourth down gave the ball back to Lamar at their own 5. Samuels ran for 6 yards and DQ Green for 1. Then, Dargan found a hole and was through the secondary for an 82-yard touchdown run that stunned the Eagles faithful. Morris found Lamont Williams alone in the corner of the end zone for the 2-pt conversion that gave Lamar a 22-14 advantage. The Silver Foxes got an excellent scoring opportunity when an Eagles pass was intercepted and returned to the Central 15. A holding penalty moved Lamar back to the 25 and their opportunistic drive blew up in smoke when a pass to the end zone was intercepted. After stopping the Eagles on just three plays, Lamar had a good punt return to the Central 25. Morris ran twice for 9 and 2 yards and Samuels gained another 2 and Lamar looked poised to score again as the half was nearly completed. A holding call moved them back 10 yards and when they fumbled after a completed pass, the half expired.

After going nowhere on the second half kick, Central took over at their own 29, missed tackles kept Central's drive alive and a 43-yard run where three tackles were broken gave the Eagles the ball at the Lamar 18. From there it took just one play, an 18-yard pass completion for the touchdown. The 2-pt conversion failed as Lamar held on to a slim 22-20 score. Lamar's next possession saw a five-play drive end at the Central 34. Their first play went for a 46-yard pass completion to the Lamar 30. A sack of 8 yards helped offset an encroachment call against the Silver Foxes. The Eagles drive would end when a fumbled pitch was recovered by Lamar at their own 41. After getting as far as the Central 37, the third quarter came to a close. An 8-yard run by Morris got them to the 31 but a false start moved them back to the 36. Then, a bad snap over the quarterback's head saw Central recover at midfield. A run of 4 yards moved them into Silver Foxes territory and then a 46-yard scoring burst and 2-pt attempt failure gave Central a 26-22 lead. Lamar responded with an 11-play drive with Samuel carrying the load. When Central was called for encroachment giving the Silver Foxes a first down at the Central 26, Morris called his own number and covered the distance. He also rushed for the 2-pt conversion that gave Lamar a 30-26 lead. The Eagles would regain the lead on an 8-play drive with the touchdown scoring from 10 yards out on a quarterback draw. The PAT made the score Central 33, Lamar 30. The Silver Foxes failed to execute a drive and turned the ball over on downs at their own 43. On the first play from scrimmage, the Central quarterback covered the distance with a 43-yard run to paydirt. The PAT made the score 40-30 in favor of Central. Central then executed a successful onside kick with less than a minute left in the game. They knelt in victory formation to run out the clock.

Dargan's big run allowed him to lead Lamar in rushing with 137 yards on 10 carries. Morris carried the ball 10 times for 109 yards and Samuel had 19 carries for 104 yards. Central was held to 82 yards rushing in the first half but exploded for 207 yards in the second half. The Eagles added 165 yards through the air for a total of 454 yards versus Lamar's total of 371 yards.

Darlington edges Crestwood 7-0

Points were hard to come by on Friday night, October 23, but the Darlington Falcons found just enough offense to leave Crestwood with a 7-0 league win over the host Knights.

The victory lifts Darlington to 4-5 on the season. The Falcons will look to build on the shutout next when they face Hartsville, a AAA Region 6 opponent. The Red Foxes enter that contest at 5-3 after a 61-14 win over Atlantic Collegiate Academy of Conway in their most recent outing.

Crestwood, now 5-4, will try to rebound on Friday, October 30, against the Lakewood Gators, also a AAA Region 6 matchup. Lakewood comes in at 1-8 following a 51-6 league loss to Loris.

Wilson Hall too much for Trinity Collegiate

By Don Gearhart

Despite a negative 14 rushing yards on the night, the Trinity Collegiate Titans stayed within a touchdown at 14-21 through the first half and almost strictly with a passing game. That accounted for 231 yards of offense and 3 touchdowns. It wasn't enough, however, as the Barons of Wilson Hall amassed 533 yards of offense with 295 rushing yards and 238 more through the air in routing the Titans on Senior Night by a 42-28 score.

The Barons scored first at 1:58 left in the first quarter on a 60-yard run. The point-after-touchdown kick made the score 7-0. The quarter ended on the Titans next possession and a short punt gave Wilson Hall good field position at the Titans 42.

After an 8-yard run, the Barons scored again on a 34-yard carry to pay dirt. The PAT made the score 14-0. Seconds later the Titans cut the lead in half as Rodreon Cranford bobbled the kickoff at the 5, then raced around the left end for a 95-yard score. Parker Phipps made the extra point kick to make the score 14-7. The Barons then ran the ball on a 7-play drive that ended with a 9-yard run to put them up 21-7 after the PAT kick sailed through the uprights. The Titans used the air attack to move the ball as far as the Barons 36 before running out of downs. Wilson Hall then nearly ran out the second quarter clock on a 12-play drive to the Trinity Collegiate 17. But, the next play was an interception in the end zone by Trinity. With the ball on the 20, Isaiah Gee hooked up with Uriah Jones for a 50-yard completion and then hit Garrison Copeland from 20 yards out for the Titans second score. Phipps made it 21-14 with the PAT kick as the half ended.

The Titans pass attack failed to move the sticks after they received the second half kickoff. Wilson Hall wasted no time in executing a 7-play drive that culminated with a 1-yard touchdown run. The PAT made the score 28-14. After the Titans failed to get a first down and punted, the Barons only took five plays to score again and the PAT made the score 35-14. The Titans had three incomplete passes and matters got worse when the snap to the punter sailed over his head. Instead of taking the safety and giving up a free kick to the Barons, the punter attempted a pass that fell to the ground. This gave the Barons the ball at the Trinity Collegiate 25. Three plays later Wilson Hall improved their score to 42-14 with a 10-yard sprint to the end zone. A good kick return set the Titans up at midfield. It only took one play for them to score as Gee found Jones wide open for a 50-yard touchdown catch-and-run. Phillps tacked on the extra point to make the score 42-21.

As the final quarter started, Wilson Hall was moving the ball down the field when a pitch was wide and the Titans fell on the ball at the 50-yard line. Five plays later, Gee passed to a wide open Copeland from 20 yards out and Phillps kick made the score 42-28. Wilson Halls 9-play drive ended in a punt although they used a good portion of the time remaining. With very little time left, the Titans last play on their next series ended up being intercepted by the Barons as the game clock expired.

Despite not being able to run the ball, the Titans accounted for 231 yards through the air on a 13-for-30 air attack that earned them three scores.

Taste of Mechanicsville draws huge crowd

By Stephan Drew, Editor

The first-ever "Taste of Mechanicsville" drew a huge crowd to the lawn of Mechanicsville Baptist Church, 2364 Cashua Ferry Road, in Darlington on Friday, October 16, for delicious food, live music, auctions, crafts and famous barbeque. PHOTO BY STEPHAN DREW

The grounds of Mechanicsville Baptist Church were filled on Friday evening as a huge crowd gathered for the first "Taste of Mechanicsville," the church's special celebration of food, community and giving. From the moment the doors opened at 5 p.m., cars lined the grounds at 2364 Cashua Ferry Road, and the aroma of slow-cooked delicious food drifted across the property.

The three-hour event, which ran until 8 p.m., drew families, neighbors, classic car enthusiasts and longtime supporters from across the Pee Dee. By early evening, a crowd of people gathered at food stations, and the church's fellowship grounds were bustling with activity.

The main attraction was, as organizers had promised, "lots of good food to taste." Guests sampled a wide variety of dishes from the church's kitchen and its many volunteer cooks around the community, served in tasting cups that allowed visitors to try a little of everything.

Mechanicsville's famous barbecue once again took center stage. Pulled pork piled with all the fixings was a crowd favorite, and many visitors left with containers of it to take home, as the church also sold its BBQ by the pound.

Outside, the cruise-in drew a lineup of classic and custom vehicles, with owners popping hoods and swapping stories with admirers as the evening sun settled over the grounds.

Inside, the General Store and Bake Sale offered shoppers cookies, cupcakes, decadent chocolate cakes and other homemade treats. Many items were gone well before the event wrapped up.

Some of the evening's liveliest moments came during the silent, live and homemade cake auction, a Mechanicsville tradition. Bidders competed enthusiastically for cakes baked by church members and volunteers

Children had their own highlight in the "Touch a Truck" area, where a fire engine was on hand for kids to explore, climb and admire up close. Young visitors lined up for a look at the equipment, and parents snapped photos throughout the evening.

All proceeds from the evening will support Mechanicsville Baptist Church, its missions and its ministries, continuing the church's longstanding commitment to serving both its local community and people far beyond Darlington County.

"This event is about more than just a plate of good food," one attendee remarked as the evening went on, "It's about neighbors coming together for something bigger than ourselves."

As the evening waned on and the crowd slowly dispersed, the sense around the church was one of gratitude, for the turnout, for the many hands that made the evening possible, and for a community that showed up in full force.

Hartsville holds Treats on the Streets

A huge crowd of costumed families filled the Coker University campus on Thursday, October 22, for Treats on the Streets, an evening of candy, costumes, and community fun.

Residents of all ages turned out for the annual event, which organizers called a "spooktacular" night for the Hartsville community.

Event organizers thanked the sponsors who helped make the evening possible: Carolina Pines Regional Medical Center, CareSouth Carolina, and Sonoco.

They also expressed gratitude to Coker University's staff and students for partnering on the event and welcoming the community to campus.

"We're so appreciative of everyone who participated and helped make the night so special," organizers said.

Hundreds of adults and children came out to enjoy treats, games, music and lots of costume fun last week during Hartsville's Treats on the Streets at Coker University.

Hartsville's Treats on the Streets brought out community characters of all ages, shapes and sizes, each showing off their unique costumes as they enjoyed the food and festivities.

cilmembers Kenzie Delaine and Colin Hungerpillar, and Darlington County Councilmember David Coker. Many local business people and residents also attended.

Before the formal program, attendees spent a lengthy stretch meeting the candidates, asking questions and raising their concerns. Chaplin then opened the program with introductions for each candidate, and they outlined the issues at the center of their campaigns.

Alan Wilson (Governor) -- Wilson, a Lexington native who has been attorney general since 2011, has centered his campaign on eliminating the state income tax, cutting fraudulent and wasteful spending, and enacting universal school choice. He called for infrastructure investment and protecting individual liberties and parental rights. He points to his record as attorney general, citing expanded work against internet crimes targeting children and the creation of a state human trafficking task force.

Mike Reichenbach (Lieutenant Governor) -- Reichenbach, a Florence businessman who owns car dealerships, has described the ticket's shared theme as "Families First." He has said that as lieutenant governor he would lead an audit initiative aimed at finding waste, fraud and abuse in government. His campaign platform also stresses support for law enforcement, Second Amendment rights, and school choice with education dollars directed into the classroom.

Cody Simpson (Commissioner of Agriculture) -- Simpson, a fifth-generation farmer from Clarendon County, previously served as state executive director of the USDA Farm Service Agency and as an agriculture adviser to Gov. Henry McMaster. He has said that overdevelopment and the rapid loss of farmland are key issues in his campaign. He pledged to defend South Carolina farmers against foreign threats such as Chinese land purchases.

Russell Fry (U.S. House, District 7) -- Fry represents a district stretching from the Grand Strand into the Pee Dee, including Darlington County. He named the economy and the border as major priorities, along with support for veterans, legislation to protect human trafficking survivors, and the fight against fentanyl. He has also advocated eliminating the federal Department of Education and sending that funding to the states in block grants.

The stop gave Pee Dee voters a chance to hear directly from candidates they will see on the ballot in the November general election.

Museum

for local youth.

The project has gained considerable momentum. The South Carolina General Assembly earmarked $800,000 in seed funding, secured through the advocacy of Representative Robert Williams. The museum has acquired its future site at 131 Pearl Street in Darlington and completed full demolition of the previous structure. It is now entering the active building phase and preparing the foundation for construction.

A ten-member founding board of directors is establishing the organization's governance, and the museum reports operating with zero debt.

Jannie Harriott, the museum's inaugural Executive Director, offered a personal appeal, sharing her honor at being chosen for the role. She described the museum as a "living sanctuary for truth," one that honors everything from the resilience of ancestors to the courage of Civil Rights pioneers.

Joining her was South Carolina Highway Patrol Commander Colonel Christopher N. Williamson, who also serves on the board. Together, they reminded guests that the museum's scope will reach well beyond the city of Darlington. It will encompass the African American history of Hartsville, Lamar, Society Hill, parts of Florence, and surrounding communities that were once part of Darlington County.

Jabari Clyburn presented a video tracing the museum's history, the planning behind it, and its fundraising efforts. He outlined a broad vision in which the museum will serve as a home for history, an economic and business driver, and an extension of the classroom. It will also support the local ecosystem, assist with workforce retention, and improve quality of life.

Clyburn noted that no non-government building has been constructed in this particular area of Darlington in 60 years, underscoring the project's significance for the neighborhood.

Despite the progress, significant work remains. Harriott said that while the organization has received $800,000 through Rep. Williams, an additional $500,000 is needed to finish the building's exterior. Approximately $500,000 will also be required to complete the roof and interior.

Harriott announced that the museum is looking for contributions – stories, photographs, letters, and other artifacts. In planning its inaugural exhibits, they welcome community insights and personal stories to help shape its narratives.
